Fresh, fun and fashionable complete with its striking exposed concrete ceiling and a combination of quality carpet and timber tones underfoot, intelligent zoning provides for open-plan living and dining complete with a well-appointed kitchen equipped with co-ordinated stainless steel appliances including a dishwasher. With sliding doors opening to a private, all-weather balcony, the good-sized bedroom has a large built-in robe, while the sleek modern bathroom enjoys a generous dash of designer style with stone benchtops and a roomy shower. Additional appointments here include split-system air-conditioning, concealed European-style laundry, concierge service and a single car space.
